ENHANCING ADULT MOTIVATION

A Comprehensive Guide for Teaching All Adults, Third Edition

RAYMOND J. WLODKOWSKI

ENHANCING ADULT MOTIVATION TO LEARN addresses issues that focus on deepening learner motivation and helping adults to want to learn. Based on the most current educational and biological research, this book offers a clear framework and sixty practical, research-based strategies that are designed to elicit and encourage learner motivation. In addition, the book is filled with practical examples, guidelines for instructional planning, and cutting-edge ideas for assessment and transfer of learning. New to this edition is the blending of a neuroscientific understanding of motivation and learning with an instructional approach responsive to linguistically and culturally different adult learners.

RAYMOND J. WLODKOWSKI is a licensed psychologist and the author or coauthor of many books, including Diversity and Motivation (1995) and Creating Highly Motivating Classrooms For All Students (2000). He works nationally and internationally in adult education and training. He lives in Seattle, Washington.
